

the absence of a sufficient of pride has kept the worthy of Lincoln in the background, others with no higher or better qualifications have been exalted to office. It is a mighty good principle and by your home folks, especially all other things are equal and a more so.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—A powder mill explosion, near San Francisco, Cal., on Saturday, killed 27 persons.

—Bids for the construction of a stone

DANVILLE.

The match game of foot ball played on Saturday last between the Danville and Lexington teams, resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 5 to 4.

Mrs. Simms, keeper of the toll-gate junction of the Richmond & Lancaster Copper Creek Turnpike, dropped while washing at the tub on Tuesday night. She was of middle age, and what always found at toll-gates, a pleasant and generally strenuous.
